

A NATION IN CRISIS

THE MOST IMPORTANT PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION EVER.

By John Michael Chambers

We are, in what many would say, facing the most important presidential election ever. While this has been said before, perhaps this time it truly is the most important election ever. Even President Donald Trump has said this in his most recent rallies. But why? Because, as I stated in my column in the June issue of Andrew Magazine, we are living in a post constitutional government.

We have all come to learn thanks to President Trump that the majority of mainstream media (MSM) is in fact-controlled propaganda funded to a large degree by major industries like big Pharma, and we know what they are up to. We have learned that the justice department has weaponized against its adversaries, and we the people. Look at all they have done to President Trump since his descent down the escalator in 2015 to the Southern District Courts of New York in 2024. We have Steve Bannon in jail, Mayor Rudy Guiliani's attempted shakedown and take down, Peter Navarro's imprisonment, and the J6ers' horrific conditions.

We are currently experiencing a tyrannical post-Constitutional government.

As President Trump reminds us, they're coming after you and me, and only he's in the way. Vote wisely. Inspire others to do the same.

Is America approaching a near-death experience? Think it's been tough thus far? Watch out between now and November 5th. Why? The deep state, the Democrats, and the global cabal network have exhausted all viable options. Consider these random media clip transcriptions.

FEMA Camps for American Dissidents?

Shortly after the January 6, 2021, Capitol protests, Washington Post columnist Eugene Robinson, said on MSNBC's "Morning Joe" that there are "millions of Americans — almost all white, almost all Republicans — who somehow need to be deprogrammed." Shortly after that, in a January 11, 2021, interview with Bill Mahre, Katie Couric asked, "How are we going to, really, almost deprogram these people who have signed up for the cult of Trump?" It is easy to see how the MSM was whipped into a frothy frenzy when they jumped on the Trump insurrection bandwagon.

Talk of deprogramming Trump supporters among and by journalists is only the beginning.

However, regarding Couric's question, we have some plausible answers if the Democrats win in 2024.

Among Army military intelligence experts, the answer lies in a revised field manual that originated in 1976 and was most recently revised in 2010, known as at. You can view this by going to Rumble and searching for Alexandra Bruce's channel.

Bit by bit, our country, through infiltration, corruption, the advent of computerized voting, and the rigged and stolen election of 2020, finds itself living not in the land of the free, but in a woke world of insanity, with the boots of tyranny pressing upon our throats. But remember this. We know who they are, where they are, and what they've done. There is nowhere to hide and nowhere to run. Their time is up, and they know it. Check out last month's article in my column titled "Trump Declares Global Defense War."

So, yes, this is the most important presidential election year ever, which will, in my opinion, determine whether we have a country, a constitutional republic, or not. This one, as the old expression goes, is for "all the marbles." Make no mistake about it. With less than four months remaining until the election, we are faced with unprecedented circumstances. Let's have a look.

Conspiracies, Damn Conspiracies and Lies

We know that the mockingbird media only shows us what they want us to see. After all, they largely control the narrative through their affiliation with six major corporations. So how and why would they let this one slip away? This man believes, as I have expressed this belief in numerous speeches over the me on my Rumble channel and watch the episode dated June 20, 2024, titled "Attacks on The Homeland - Disruptions and Destruction" with Juan O'Savin. Like a cornered animal, the deep state is desperate. Desperate and destructive measures are imminent.

The Republicans may consider rolling the dice since this election may be "to big to rig," but there is great risk in taking this. Once you come to understand the condition of America under attack between September and November, you may come to the same conclusion as me. The election for a host of reasons will more than likely be delayed. Just how this all plays out, only God knows. I do see the potential for utilization of the EBS (emergency broadcast system), and COG, (continuity of government in play) until dangers subside and we are able to move forward with free and fair elections. When able, get out and vote! I will say this, Trump and the military white hats have been playing 5D chess, and checkmate is coming.

You Are the Answer

A nation in crisis and you have a date that will be pivotal, Tuesday, November 5, 2024. The gloves are off. We are at war and living now in a post constitutional, tyrannical government that over the years has been taken over by both foreign and domestic enemies on our watch. This spiritual battle rages. It's good vs. evil. It's either us or them. In the end, we win, they lose.

So, unite in truth not in politics nor religion, and then fight for what's right as though your life depends upon it, because it does. We are on the cusp of biblical events that will rock the rafters of this world. Confront it. Let the ways of our past go. Pray. "Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil." Embrace the truth and help to create a new world, one that God intended for us all. We are on God's side, and God always wins. Free will? Use it wisely. Do your part.

past three years, that the truth will eventually come to light. We are the good guys, the white hats, if you will, and we have exposed the lies of the MSM narrative. Slowly and increasingly over time.

Part of the truth is that there are ever increasing concerns, and I will leave this type of speculation for another time. The rabbit holes are widespread and quite deep, but there is a smattering of truth in every conspiracy. If you are interested, explore all the content at www.StormIsUponUs.com

With Joe Biden's well anticipated collapse in the recent debate and his candidacy, we now face a greater level of incompetency in Kamala Harris. President Donald Trump, leads in the polls and the betting parlors of the world. The DNC, along with the fake news mainstream media, are in full scale panic and scramble mode. While three months ago not a single Democrat would support Harris, the Democrats and media are in a coordinated deflect and defend mode of operation while they try to sort out the last-minute debacle, they find themselves in.

Elections Delayed are Elections Denied

I see the election being delayed. Why? The Democrats are in meltdown mode at the eleventh hour without a prayer for an electable candidate. In conclusion here, simply speculation, if I were a lying, stealing, cheating Democrat or the Deep State evil global cabal, I would be fearing for my life as we are under a wartime command structure and military tribunals are swift, and the penalty for treason is death. With the theft of a nation in the 2020 elections, the bioweapon genocidal jab, sex, child, and human trafficking, they have much to fear should Donald J. Trump win the 2024 election.
